SEE WHAT NATURE OFFERS

“Coming back showed this place to be a spectacular example of Kentuckiana. One drives through splendid country views, but most of the state is inaccessible. Here, a beautifully manicured park gives you an easy trek through a variety of scenery ranging from wetlands to fields laden with wildflowers.”

GET OUT AND ENJOY IT

“I have loved seeing the Parklands grow along the years, and it seems that the park has perfectly met every stage of life when I have visited. It was great for running and biking in years past, and now the playground and splash park are our favorite parts.”
